

Dear fellow cattlemen,
What an exciting time to be in the cattle business. Record high prices, challenges with drought to keep things together, and now is the time to step back and appreciate each other's role in the beef business. This is the time of year to evaluate our needs, and get together at Bohaty's to look at the cattle, and renew our friendships with each other that are so valuable.

As a neighbor, I feel Walt and Nancy do such a great job of showing us how to use their cattle in a commercial herd, purebred herd, and in a big or small acreage setting. They show a great example of selecting great cattle, and finding that market for our product that fits our own situation. But above all else, they represent themselves and their cattle in a fair and honest manner that make you feel comfortable with what they are doing, and let you deal with confidence that you will be well treated.

Great cattle, great food, great people.....Life doesn't get any better than this. I hope to see you on April 14th to make new friends, and visit with old ones. See you there.

As always
Norm Andrews
